

Moroccan Optical Cable Fitting Manufacturer

AI Overview

FBR Cables and FiberCorp are leading Moroccan companies providing locally manufactured fiber optic cables and related equipment. FBR Cables is Morocco's leading fiber optic cable manufacturer, established in 1999. They design and produce high-performance fiber optic cables for indoor, outdoor, aerial, and long-distance networks, as well as copper LAN cables from Cat6 to Cat8. Their Bouskoura facility combines advanced production equipment with rigorous quality standards, ensuring ISO-certified quality, full traceability, and reliable delivery. FBR Cables serves operators, integrators, and project owners, offering technical support, installation guidance, and post-delivery assistance. They emphasize environmental responsibility, occupational safety, and information security. FiberCorp specializes in engineering solutions for optical fiber installations and accessories. While they distribute and resell products from OFS Optics, a global leader in fiber optic technology, they also provide installation kits, fusion splicers, and training for technicians. OFS Optics operates a facility in Tangier, Morocco, ensuring local availability of advanced fiber optic products. FiberCorp focuses on optimized network deployment, technical support, and training, making them a key partner for telecom projects in Morocco and West Africa. Additional Resources For broader supplier options, Kerix and Kerix Export provide directories of Moroccan companies involved in fiber optic cabling, including exporters and service providers. These platforms allow businesses to request quotes and explore partnerships with local manufacturers. Summary FBR Cables: Full-scale Moroccan manufacturer of fiber optic and copper LAN cables, ISO-certified, local production, technical support. FiberCorp: Distributor and engineering solutions provider, reselling OFS Optics products, offeri...
